

Employment Law Update 2014

Agenda

7:30 a.m.	Breakfast and Networking
8:15 a.m.	Welcome and Introduction
Morning General Session
	Panel Discussion on New Developments in Federal and Colorado law This panel will discuss recent developments in federal and Colorado law, including Colorado's Anti-discrimination law, restrictions on using credit reports, FMLA leave for civil union/domestic partners (CO) and same-sex spouses in states that recognize same-sex marriages, the U.S. Supreme Court's heightened standard on retaliation, harassment liability, the EEOC's new Religious Accommodation guidance, new policies targeted by NLRB, and separation agreements.
10:00 a.m.	Break
	Morning Breakout Session
	TRACK 1		TRACK 2
10:15 a.m.	Corporate Compliance and Whistleblower Actions Panelists will discuss recent high profile cases addressing Sarbanes Oxley, retaliation, and whistleblower claims. They	10:15 a.m.	Wage and Hour – Are Your Pay Practices Compliant? In this session, attendees will learn best practices to keep their pay practices compliant under the FLSA and state law, will provide practical tips for employers to maintain an effective compliance program to avoid such claims.		and how to avoid common wage and hour claims.
11:30 a.m.	will provide practical tips for employers to maintain an effective compliance program to avoid such claims.
11:30 a.m. 11:45 a.m.	will provide practical tips for employers to maintain an effective compliance program to avoid such claims. Break Lunch – Keynote Speaker – Ed Tate – Making Managers (& Ed is known nationally and internationally for on effective leadership and management. Ed i providing workshops and programs in leaders	r his energizing s the principal ship, executive n team to merg	and how to avoid common wage and hour claims. Leaders g, educational, and entertaining speaking performances of Ed Tate & Associates, a professional development firm presentation, challenges of change, and sales presentation. The personnel at the Denver Post and its long-time rival, the

Employment Law Update 2014

Agenda

Afternoon Breakout Sessions
	TRACK 1		TRACK 2
1:15 p.m.	What Employers Need to Know About the Next Wave of Health Care Reform The constantly changing deadlines and requirements of the Affordable Care Act are enough to make your head spin. In this session, we will focus on what employers should be doing now to prepare for compliance with the new guidelines, including the employer reporting requirements, rules for determining full-time employee status and employer coverage requirements, transition rules that delay the effective date of some requirements, and the Administration's enforcement efforts targeting employers who "dump" their employees on exchanges.	1:15 p.m.	Navigating Through Real Life HR Challenges In this session, attendees will hear from both attorneys and human resources professionals on how to address real life HR issues, including workers' comp, workplace safety and emergency response, FMLA, ADA with interactive process, performance issues, retaliation, and wrongful discharge.
2:30 p.m.	. Break
2:45 p.m.	Round Robins In the round robins, attendees will have the opportunity to meet with Holland & Hart attorneys to ask questions and engage in conversation on labor and employment issues such as the Affordable Care Act, immigration, discipline and termination, workplace safety, wage and hour, and other topics.	2:45 p.m.	FMLA Family Feud Attorneys will discuss recent updates in FMLA, including the FMLA medical certification process, caregiver discrimination, the transition from FMLA leave to ADA accommodation, and disciplining employees for disability- related activities.
4:00 p.m.	Break
	Afternoon Go	neral Session
4:15 p.m.	Drugs in the Workplace In this panel, we will discuss the legal implications for employers when it comes to legalized marijuana and prescription drugs, including drug testing, privacy, disability and discrimination, and safety and health. Attendees will learn about practical decision-making in order to minimize liability.
5:15 p.m.	HAPPY HOUR WITH HOLLAND&HART				