Rebecca's practice focuses in the area of state and local taxation, assisting clients in planning for and litigating issues concerning state income, property, and sales and use tax.

Rebecca has extensive experience managing company startup and growth in the private sector as, prior to law school, she owned and operated her own healthcare company. Rebecca leverages her practical business knowledge and experience to help clients develop effective solutions to achieve their business objectives.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Rebecca served as a judicial extern on the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Utah for Judges William T. Thurman and Kevin R. Anderson. She also has experience in the public sector, including externing at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission during law school and working for the Utah Division of Securities.
