EDUCATION

Santa Clara University, Paralegal Degree, 1989
 Kishwaukee College, Associate Degree in Business, 1983

Marcy currently supports the International Trade practice group. While at Holland & Hart she has worked in numerous areas of litigation including complex product liability, white-collar, telecommunications, election law, contracts, labor and employment, construction, personal injury, and oil and gas.

While in the trade practice group, she has assisted attorneys with internal investigations involving the Departments of State, Commerce, Treasury and Customs and Border Protection. She has knowledge in the areas of International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), and Export Administration Regulations (EAR).

Marcy has managed complex product liability cases, one of which concluded in a nine-week trial in Miami, Florida. Her role consisted of assisting eight trial attorneys during the discovery and trial phases, where she maintained over 200 depositions. Marcy also organized and managed two million client documents and four million documents produced by opposing counsel; prepared, indexed, and managed 4900 trial exhibits; and assisted with general and expert witness preparation.
