Trusted Advisor: Beat's experience in counseling clients through highly complex real estate and corporate transactions gives him the ability to see a project holistically. This experience aids his clients as he considers every angle of a project, especially the business perspective, while providing sound advice on legal issues.

Resort Industry Focus: Beat Steiner deals extensively with clients in the resort industry, and has worked on ski, golf, hunting, fishing, and mountain resorts throughout North America.

Experience: Beat's extensive experience in a wide range of projects gives him a reservoir of knowledge to tap for each new engagement. He has represented developers, lenders, investors, owners, nonprofits, and governmental and quasi-governmental agencies, domestic and foreign. His work has included all facets of real estate law, and, in addition, he has significant experience with limited liability companies and other joint venture entities, public-private partnerships, and a number of more obscure but important matters, including letters of credit, conservation easements, trade and entity names, and entity conversions.

EXPERIENCE

Development, financing, acquisition, and disposition of more than 20 ski resorts in, among other places, Colorado, Utah, California, Idaho, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Canada, and New Zealand.

Public-Private – project development work involving the rehabilitation of Denver's historic Union Station, development of the Winter Park Resort base area, and creation of a multi-city high speed internet network.

Leasing throughout the U.S., including leases for a data center operator and a major oil company.

Representation of promoters and investors in syndicated investments for hotels, restaurants, multifamily, office, and other real estate assets.

Representation of lenders, letter-of-credit issuers, trustees, and bondholders in issuance and work-outs of municipal bond transactions for real estate infrastructure.

Representation of lenders in acquisition, development, construction, and permanent loans.

Representation of numerous ranch owners in purchase, sale, financing, and management matters.
