Rob has extensive trial and arbitration experience in both federal and state court. He has successfully litigated numerous cases before judges and juries on a wide variety of matters, including condemnation, false claims, free speech, shareholder disputes, business torts, partnership disputes, breaches of contract, fraud, conspiracy, defamation, emotional distress, and products liability cases. His clients range from national Fortune 500 companies to local “mom and pop” businesses.

Because every client is unique, Rob's representation of businesses and individuals in commercial and business litigation cases focuses on the specific goals and needs of the client to develop an effective strategy to accomplish those goals.
