

Gayana Grigoryan

Paralegal

222 South Main Street, Suite 2200, Salt Lake City, UT 84101

P 801.799.5879

gigrigoryan@hollandhart.com

Gayana Grigoryan is an intellectual property paralegal with experience in trademark prosecution and copyright matters.

PRACTICES

Trademarks and Foreign Portfolio Management
Labor and Employment
Immigration
Intellectual Property

EDUCATION

University of Utah, B.A., 2010
cum laude

American Alliance of Certified Paralegals,
A.A.C.P., 2010

Salt Lake City Community College, 2005

Applied Technology Education, Skills
Certification in Law Enforcement, 2001

Her experience includes work in trademark searching, preparation of trademark documents, and electronic filing with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. She is a seasoned paralegal with over a decade of experience in labor and employment, litigation, and immigration law.

Gayana currently specializes in the management of the domestic and foreign trademark portfolios of large, multi-national companies.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Gayana worked as a trial paralegal for Stirba, P.C., in Salt Lake City, and as a litigation paralegal for Bennett Tueller Johnson & Deere. She also worked as a Court Clerk for the Salt Lake City Justice Court.

EXPERIENCE

- Correspond with law firms worldwide to coordinate the filling of new applications
- Manage the prosecution process
- Analyze office actions
- Obtain evidence of use
- Attend to renewals and other trademark maintenance filings
- Review assignments and chain of title issues