EDUCATION

University of Arizona, BSBA, Accounting

KK has extensive experience in several areas including estate administration, estate and gift taxation, fiduciary accounting and wealth transfer planning. She assists clients with their estate administration and gift matters as well as the related tax reporting requirements. KK also assists clients with their estate and wealth transfer plans by providing initial illustrative calculations, and by helping the clients maintain their plans on an annual basis, as well as modify their plans, if necessary.

Prior to joining Holland and Hart in 2008, KK practiced public accounting with two small firms in Santa Fe, New Mexico and EKS&H in Denver. She had over fifteen year of public accounting experience before joining Holland & Hart.
