

Kenyon Redfoot

Associate

555 17th Street, Suite 3200, Denver, CO 80202

P 303.295.8117

knredfoot@hollandhart.com

Kenyon provides strategic advice to clients at every stage of the corporate lifecycle.

His practice focuses on assisting clients with mergers and acquisitions, project finance, business and commercial transactions, corporate governance, and securities regulation. Kenyon also has significant experience in sports marketing and analysis of collective bargaining agreements for a professional sports agency. Prior to joining the firm, he interned in the Enforcement Bureau for the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, D.C.

PRACTICES

Corporate
Securities and Capital Markets
Project Development and Finance
Mergers and Acquisitions

EDUCATION

The George Washington University Law School, J.D., 2017
cum laude
Articles Editor, Federal Communications Law Journal (2016-17)

American University, B.A., 2012
magna cum laude
Public Communication

BAR ADMISSIONS

Colorado

PUBLICATIONS

"A Looming 'Sand Trap' in Severed Mineral Estates," Vol. 55 No. 2 Rocky Mt. Min. L. Fdn. J. 387, 2018

"A Looming "Sand Trap" in Severed Mineral Estates," Colorado Natural Resources, Energy and Environmental Law Review, Vol. 29, Issue 2, Summer 2018

"SEC Subpoenas Signal Heightened Cryptocurrency Focus," Holland & Hart News Update, Co-Author, 03/19/2018

"Commercial Bribery as an Enforcement Mechanism for Agent-to-Athlete Payments," Unsung Zeroes, April 13, 2017

"Mako Communications v. FCC," Federal Communications Law Journal, November 1, 2016

"Montgomery County v. FCC," Federal Communications Law Journal, November 1, 2016

"SEC Proposes Updates to Property Disclosure Regime for Mining Registrants," Holland & Hart News Update, Co-Author, 06/28/2016