Chris represents clients in a variety of commercial and appellate litigation matters. He prides himself on analyzing complex legal issues, providing persuasive arguments, and securing successful outcomes for his clients.

Chris brings a wide array of experience to Holland & Hart. He joined the firm after serving as a law clerk to the Honorable Gregory K. Orme, Presiding Judge of the Utah Court of Appeals, and to the Honorable Kate A. Toomey of the Utah Court of Appeals. In addition to his judicial clerkships, he has worked for all three branches of the federal government, including serving as a judicial intern to the Honorable Evelyn J. Furse of the United States District Court, District of Utah, clerking with the U.S. Attorney's Office, and working in Washington, D.C., as a law clerk on Senator Orrin Hatch's Senate Judiciary Committee.

While in law school, Chris served as an Articles Editor of the Utah Law Review. His team finished first place in the Traynor Moot Court Competition and was awarded best brief. His team later received the best brief award at the regional round of the National Moot Court Competition, where they finished second place. Chris also clerked with Questar Corporation (n/k/a Dominion Energy Questar).
