

Amy Lovin

Associate

555 17th Street, Suite 3200, Denver, CO 80202

P 303.295.8051

AELovin@hollandhart.com

Amy assists public and private companies with all stages of project development, finance, mergers, acquisitions, and other business transactions, in both the energy and infrastructure and technology sectors.

She regularly supports clients with the purchase and sale of companies and assets for complex finance deals and joint venture agreements and represents clients with a variety of design, construction, purchase, supply, and sale projects of all sizes and energy types.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Amy worked with the Legal and Acquisition Services departments as a Policy & Compliance Program Manager at the National Renewable Energy Laboratory.

PRACTICES

Corporate
Project Development and Finance
Mergers and Acquisitions
Venture Capital and Private Equity
Project Development

INDUSTRIES

Energy and Resources
Electric Power

EDUCATION

University of Denver Sturm College of Law, J.D., 2018
Certificate in Environmental and Natural Resources Law

Samford University, B.A., 2013
Dean's List Scholar

BAR ADMISSIONS

Colorado

EXPERIENCE

- Provides assistance with the review, drafting, negotiation, and execution of:
  - commercial contracts
  - power purchase agreements
  - engineering, procurement and construction agreements
  - operation and maintenance agreements
  - venture capital financing agreements
- Conducts due diligence review and performs closing responsibilities for venture capital financing and merger and acquisition deals
- Performs general corporate review and drafting for entity formation, proxy statements, and organization actions

CLIENT RESULTS

Represented Delta-Montrose Electric Association (DMEA), in the successful negotiation of DMEA's withdrawal agreement with Tri-State Generation and Transmission Association, Inc., and launching a new 12.5-year power supply agreement with Guzman Energy, LLC.

Represented encoord Inc. in its conversion from a Colorado LLC to a Delaware corporation and in the sale and issuance of the Company's approximately $1.1 million Series Seed Preferred equity financing to its investors.

PROFESSIONAL AND CIVIC AFFILIATIONS

- Colorado Bar Association, Member