

Philip Griffin

Associate

800 W. Main Street, Suite 1750, Boise, ID 83702

P 208.383.3902

PJGriffin@hollandhart.com

Phil represents companies and individuals in civil litigation, regulatory enforcement actions, and bankruptcy proceedings.

Phil specializes in complex dispute resolution. He regularly helps clients navigate and resolve high-stakes contested matters in state and federal court and before government agencies and regulators. He also advises clients, primarily lenders and other creditors, in commercial insolvency and restructuring matters.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Phil was an associate at K&L Gates LLP in Washington, D.C. Prior to law school, he worked as a compliance analyst for a global investment bank.

PRACTICES

Bankruptcy, Restructuring, and Creditors' Rights
Commercial Litigation
Government Investigations and White Collar Defense
Securities Enforcement and Shareholder Litigation
International Trade and Compliance
Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and Anti-Corruption

EDUCATION

University of Pennsylvania Law School,
J.D., 2016
cum laude

University of Pennsylvania Law Review, Comments Editor
Moot Court Board Member
Wharton Certificate in Management

Villanova University, B.A., 2011
summa cum laude

BAR ADMISSIONS

Idaho
Massachusetts
District of Columbia

COURT ADMISSIONS

United States Court of Federal Claims

PUBLICATIONS

"OFAC Redefines the Term "Significant Transnational Criminal Organization," Broadening Its Reach," International Compliance Blog, Co-Author, 10/09/2019

"Developments in SEC Administrative Proceedings: An Evaluation of Recent Appointment Clause Challenges, the Rapidly Evolving Judicial Landscape, and the SEC's Response to Critics," University of Pennsylvania Journal of Business Law, 2016