

Kathryn Brautigam

Associate

1029 W. 3rd Avenue, Suite 550, Anchorage, AK 99501

P 907.865.2612

KMBrautigam@hollandhart.com

Katy's practice focuses on environmental and infrastructure project development and litigation in Alaska.

PRACTICES

Environmental and Natural Resources
Litigation
Environmental and Natural Resources

EDUCATION

University of Montana School of Law,
J.D., 2018
Montana Law Review, Executive Editor

Westmont College, B.A., 2015
Dean's List

BAR ADMISSIONS

Alaska
Montana

Katy helps clients secure and defend environmental authorization for resource development and energy projects and counsels clients on permitting issues. As an Anchorage native, Katy's knowledge of the local economy and business landscape are assets to her clients.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Katy served as a law clerk to Montana Supreme Court Justice James Rice.

PUBLICATIONS

"Sovereign States Pitted Against Sovereign Tribes in Recent Federal District Court Decision," Holland & Hart News Update, Co-Author, 09/20/2021

RECOGNITION

- Anchorage Bar Association, Benjamin Walters Distinguished Service Award, 2021