

Stefan Hasselblad

Associate

800 W. Main Street, Suite 1750, Boise, ID 83702

P 208.383.3946

sjhasselblad@hollandhart.com

Stefan represents companies and individuals in commercial litigation and defends clients facing government investigations.

PRACTICES

Government Investigations and White Collar Defense
Commercial Litigation
Antitrust and Trade Regulation

EDUCATION

Harvard Law School, J.D., 2015
Harvard Journal of Law and Public Policy, Deputy Managing Editor and Executive Editor

Columbia University, B.A., 2007

BAR ADMISSIONS

Idaho
District of Columbia

Stefan provides sophisticated counsel to clients in high-stakes trial and appellate litigation, including securities, antitrust, fraud, and breach of contract matters.

He also advises and defends clients facing investigations by the Department of Justice, State Attorneys General, and federal agencies such as the SEC and FBI. He has significant experience conducting internal investigations relating to intellectual property, antitrust, and securities matters.

Stefan has tried more than a dozen criminal and civil cases and has successfully argued before the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Stefan served as an Assistant United States Attorney where he investigated and prosecuted white collar and public corruption matters. He also worked as an associate at a prominent Washington D.C. litigation firm.

After graduating from Harvard Law School, Stefan clerked for the Honorable Neil M. Gorsuch on the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Prior to law school, Stefan served as a United States Army infantry officer, deploying to Iraq and Afghanistan. He was awarded the Bronze Star Medal for service.

PUBLICATIONS

"How to Tell if COVID-19 Qualifies as Force Majeure in Your Contracts,"
Idaho Business Review, 06/16/2020