Clients look to Tori for advice and counseling in commercial real estate transactions.

Tori focuses on commercial real estate development, land use, acquisitions and dispositions, due diligence and title review, and commercial leasing. Tori has experience negotiating and managing real property purchase and sale agreements, closing borrower-side Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac loans, preparing commercial leases, and resolving title issues. Tori also helps clients navigate or avoid complex disputes, and her clients benefit from her wide-ranging litigation experience with securities, business, commercial, and real estate matters.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Tori worked as an associate at a large Utah-based law firm. She was a judicial intern with the Idaho Fourth Judicial District Court and with the U.S. Magistrate Judge Candy W. Dale of the U.S. District Court, District of Idaho.
