Robert works closely with clients on general corporate matters, focusing in the areas of both mergers and acquisitions and corporate governance.

Robert leverages his oil and gas industry experience, previously working in Houston as a Landman and as a project systems administrator for Marathon Oil Company, to assist clients with their M&A transactions and corporate law needs. He has experience drafting corporate governance documentation, including corporate resolutions, company agreements, bylaws, plans of conversion, certificates of formation, and certificates of amendment. He is skilled at conducting effective legal research and drafting ancillary agreements in connection with M&A transactions.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Robert worked as an associate attorney at Looper Goodwine in Houston, Texas.
