Taylor uses her wide-reaching legal background to provide estate planning and wealth management advice to high net worth individuals.

She helps individuals and their families to achieve their goals by finding the most efficient and effective tax planning solutions to fit their needs. She takes a client-focused approach, prioritizing the unique needs of each individual client to ensure that they receive the highest quality strategic counsel.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Taylor served as an associate at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP. During this time, she focused on corporate law including capital market transactions, public company counseling, emerging company advice, and venture capital financings.
