Anna helps public and private clients resolve complex business disputes and appeals.

She represents clients in complex civil litigation and government investigations. Anna has significant experience with class actions, breach of contract disputes, and constitutional litigation. She has successfully litigated cases before a wide range of federal and state trial courts and has worked on appeals before the Second, Eighth and Ninth Circuits as well as several state supreme courts.

Anna grew up in the Czech Republic and Canada. Her international background is an asset to multinational entities as well as national and regional companies seeking to succeed in an increasingly global economy.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Anna clerked for the Honorable Jane Kelly on the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit and the Honorable Terrence G. Berg on the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. She previously worked as an associate at a litigation boutique and was a summer associate at an international law firm in New York.

Anna has an active pro bono practice. She has previously represented clients in federal civil rights proceedings through the Eastern District of Louisiana's Civil Pro Bono Panel and is now a member of the District of Colorado's Civil Pro Bono Panel.
