Zak advises clients on various corporate matters and helps them develop pragmatic solutions to grow their businesses and maximize efficiencies.

Zak counsels clients of all sizes in mergers and acquisitions, strategic growth planning, and general business matters. His experience working in government service equips him to help clients navigate a range of issues, and he has assisted with legal communications, environmental matters, record management, and drafting documentation.

During law school, Zak worked as an environmental specialist with the Bureau of Land Management and served as a law clerk with the Office of the Solicitor for the Department of the Interior. Prior to attending law school, he worked as an information specialist for the Department of the Interior and audited local businesses for the Idaho Department of Environmental Quality.
