Katie focuses her practice on trademark prosecution and enforcement for clients of varying sizes within the consumer products, food and beverage, and outdoor recreation industries.

Katie works in partnership with clients, small brand owners and Fortune 500 companies alike, to develop comprehensive trademark strategies with an emphasis on all aspects of trademark prosecution, clearance, and enforcement. She has experience managing domestic and international trademark portfolios, working closely with foreign counsel across the world. Katie also advises on trade dress and copyright matters.

Katie has represented clients in federal courts throughout the United States along the many stages of litigation and in proceedings before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

Katie maintains an active pro bono practice and represents clients before the Illinois Torture Inquiry and Relief Commission.
