Clients trust Chris Toll to help them navigate complex business litigation and bet-the-company cases.

Chris's trial practice concentrates in two areas: general commercial and trade secrets/covenants not to compete.

Extensive Courtroom Experience. Chris has successfully tried numerous jury trials, bench trials, preliminary injunction hearings, and commercial arbitrations. He is a Fellow of the highly selective American College of Trial Lawyers.

Professional recognition. In 2014, Benchmark Litigation stated about Chris, "If you have a bet-the-company case, he's the kind of person you want on your side." He has been similarly recognized for his client service and litigation results in a wide range of additional peer-review publications.
