Holly brings more than 35 years of experience in both New York and Colorado to her practice representing public and private companies and individuals in high-stakes securities litigation and arbitrations, including class actions, shareholder derivative suits, SEC and FINRA enforcement and bet-the-company complex commercial litigation.

Clients turn to Holly because of her proven track record of obtaining results that meet each client's unique needs. As a former Director of Arbitrations at the American Stock Exchange, she brings practical knowledge and experience to her arbitration practice.

Holly is a fellow in the College of Commercial Arbitrators, a member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals, and a frequent arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association and FINRA. She is also an experienced mediator and has handled hundreds of alternative dispute resolution matters in commercial cases.

EXPERIENCE

Securities Litigation and Arbitration

Holly represents clients in all aspects of securities litigation and arbitrations, including securities class actions, derivative suits, RICO class actions, SEC, FINRA and state regulatory matters, internal investigations, suits claiming breach of fiduciary duty, misconduct by corporate directors, and corporate governance litigation.

White Collar and SEC Enforcement

Holly's clients include public and private companies and their senior executives facing regulatory investigations and enforcement actions by the SEC, FINRA, and other regulatory organizations. Holly has years of experience defending companies and their officers and directors in SEC and FINRA enforcement proceedings and investigations, conducting internal corporate investigations, and acting as counsel to Special Litigation Committees.

Complex Commercial Litigation and Class Actions

Holly's practice also focuses on a wide variety of complex commercial litigation claims, involving breach of contract, fraud, RICO, COCCA, cybersecurity, consumer class actions, lender liability, TILA, FCRA, trade secrets, and TCPA class actions.
