Andy provides effective counsel to clients engaged in real estate finance and transactions nationwide.

Andy helps clients successfully undertake multi-million dollar large-scale real estate transactions involving multifamily housing, mixed-use office and retail, commercial leasing, and renewable energy development. He has significant experience advising natural resource developers and brings a unique perspective to renewable energy deals.

Andy is a trusted advisor who provides his clients with the expertise they need, when they need it, while maintaining a personal touch. Andy and his team efficiently negotiate loan documents, purchase and sale agreements, leases, easements, and all other types of real estate agreements to help clients.
