Hope has over 20 years of experience partnering with global brands on strategic trademark portfolio and enforcement programs and litigating when inevitable.

Hope leads teams that provide a full spectrum of trademark and branding services, including selection, clearance, prosecution, maintenance, registration, acquisitions, enforcement, and litigation. Clear, concise, practical guidance is a core tenant of her approach. Clients value her responsiveness, efficiency, dedication to high quality service, and her ability to quickly learn their business and its specific needs. Hope is dedicated to ensuring seamless integration between firm and in-house legal teams.

In adversarial matters, Hope is a fierce advocate for her clients and she approaches each conflict with a fresh, creative perspective aimed to obtain the best and most efficient results.

Hope is also a committed supporter of the Rocky Mountain IP & Technology Conference. She served on the Planning Committee and co-moderated the Trademark & Copyright track from 2015 to 2022.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Hope practiced with Covington & Burling LLP in Washington, D.C.

UDRP complaint proceedings.

Represented plaintiff and brand owner in federal court jury trial, in which a unanimous jury found that the defendant had willfully infringed and awarded $3.625 million in damages. The case involved novel issues of law concerning royalty damages awards in the absence of a prior licensing relationship. QS Wholesale, Inc. v. World Marketing, Inc., Case No. 8:12-cv-00451 (C.D. Cal.).

Successfully represented Spirits International B.V. in appeal to the Federal Circuit concerning registration of the trademark Moskovskaya, In re Spirits International, 563 F. 3d 1347 (Fed. Cir. 2009), which redefined the application of the doctrine of foreign equivalents in assessing marks that are allegedly primarily geographically misdescriptive.

Worked for 10+ years with large international team to defend against the Russian Federation's efforts to claw back the famous Stolichnaya vodka brand, both in federal court and before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.
