Megan provides counsel in the area of real estate law, with an emphasis on commercial real estate transactions, development, federal equity receiverships, and financing.

She has extensive experience in negotiating and preparing complex lease documentation, representing both landlords and tenants in ground, retail, office, industrial, data center, and build-to-suit leases. Her real estate practice includes complex purchase and sale transactions, as well as common interest community law as it relates to mixed use, commercial, and residential projects.

Megan represents a number of developers of shopping center, office, residential, and other mixed-use projects, as well as acting as transactional real estate counsel to federal equity receivers in identifying, preserving, managing, and liquidation of large multi-family, commercial, agricultural, and residential portfolios.
