Paula is an experienced trial lawyer who provides thoughtful counsel to businesses and when needed, guides clients through the complexities of the litigation process.

Land Use and Real Estate
Paula often counsels her clients on land use litigation matters and is frequently sought out for general advice for homeowner's associations and the distinct issues involved in managing HOAs. Paula also represents owners, contractors, and architects in disputes involving residential and commercial projects. She has extensive experience effectively representing clients in court and arbitration proceedings.

Trust and Estate
Paula frequently handles complex trust litigation matters, advising clients on crucial aspects of trust disputes. Her skill in this area has helped her clients secure favorable outcomes in contentious trust-related matters.

Employment Counseling and Litigation
Paula works with employers on every aspect of employment law. She helps employers anticipate, avoid, and resolve workplace issues and defends them against lawsuits involving a range of employment law matters. She frequently conducts employer and management training sessions to help employers manage day-to-day employment issues.
