Seasoned M&A Attorney: Nate has helped countless public and private buyers and sellers complete all manner of M&A and other exit transactions. Nate takes a pragmatic approach to deals, providing level-headed advice to quickly and efficiently find practical solutions to complicated problems and overcome bottlenecks in high-stakes negotiations. Nate primarily focuses on the technology and consumer products sectors, and also has significant experience representing buyers and sellers in the oil & gas, manufacturing, entertainment, and aggregates and cement industries.

Growing Companies: Nate helps sponsor-backed and growth-minded companies plan, negotiate, and execute on all manner of transactions to achieve their desired outcomes. This often includes debt and equity financings and counsel on all manner of day-to-day legal topics such as corporate governance, cap table and equity plan management, and other strategic growth opportunities. All of these efforts are aimed at ensuring the company is prepared for a clean and efficient exit at the appropriate time.

Before beginning his legal career, Nate was a startup founder and employee in the Denver area and a professional ice hockey player.
