

Craig Radoci

Paralegal

1800 Broadway, Suite 300, Boulder, CO 80302

P 303.245.2065

ceradoci@hollandhart.com

Craig Radoci is a paralegal with a dual focus on trademark enforcement and complex litigation, with over 12 years of experience.

PRACTICES

Global Trademark Brand Management
Intellectual Property

EDUCATION

University of Maryland School of Law,
J.D., 2013

University of Maryland, B.A., 2007
With High Honors

Craig has deep experience in trademark enforcement matters, including managing and updating clients' enforcement docket, preparing initial drafts of Notices of Opposition, Petitions for Cancellation, and other TTAB pleadings, compiling evidence for TTAB matters, reviewing watch notices and preparing work-ups of proposed enforcement, and corresponding with foreign counsel on worldwide enforcement matters. His litigation experience spans both the state and federal level where he drafts correspondence and pleadings, conducts fact investigations, and edits and cite checks briefs, motions, and other filings.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Craig worked for six years as a Paralegal Specialist in the Consumer Protection Branch within the Civil Division of the United States Department of Justice in Washington, DC. While at the Justice Department, he worked with agencies such as the Food and Drug Administration, the Federal Trade Commission, and the Consumer Product Safety Commission to enforce consumer protection statutes throughout the United States.

EXPERIENCE

Craig most recently worked for Cohn, Goldberg & Deutsch, LLC in Baltimore, Maryland, where he specialized in real estate litigation and residential foreclosures in both the Maryland and District of Columbia courts. Craig has significant experience assisting with all phases of litigation, including:

- Fact investigation and evidence gathering
- Drafting correspondence and pleadings
- Editing and cite checking briefs, motions, and other filings
- Researching and analyzing case law, statutory provisions, legislative history, and administrative rules
- Reviewing documents to ascertain privilege and/or responsiveness
- Managing and organizing document productions as part of the discovery process
- Locating and interviewing potential witnesses
- Working with expert and fact witnesses
- Communicating with opposing counsel, pro se litigants, court

personnel, and others

- Compiling and preparing electronic and paper exhibits for presentation at trial
- Testifying at hearings and trial

Craig is experienced with electronic filing systems such as CM/ECF, PACER, and ESTTA, as well as document review programs such as Concordance and Relativity.

Craig also has experience in trademark enforcement, including:

- Reviewing watch notices and preparing work-ups of applications we may want to oppose
- Compiling evidence for oppositions, cancellations, and other proceedings
- Corresponding with foreign counsel regarding the status of active matters
- Managing and updating the enforcement docket
- Preparing initial drafts of Notices of Opposition, Petitions for Cancellation, and other pleadings
- Preparing monthly enforcement reports for clients

RECOGNITION

- Civil Division Award for Excellence in Paralegal Support, 2009

“In recognition of outstanding achievements in the paralegal field over a sustained period of time or extraordinary achievements that overcame unusual difficulties or unique situations of high importance to the mission of the Civil Division”