Laura delivers pragmatic counsel to help mining, energy, and natural resources clients navigate litigation and regulatory challenges.

Laura's clients, including large energy users, mining companies, and water owners, benefit from her extensive litigation and regulatory experience, and her experience as Vice President and U.S. General Counsel for a large utility provider. Laura led the legal team that successfully defended the federal and state authorizations for development of the largest known lithium deposit in the world at Thacker Pass.

Regulatory Practice
Laura represents clients before numerous regulatory agencies including the Bureau of Land Management, United States Forest Service, Public Utilities Commission of Nevada, the Nevada Division of Water Resources, and the Nevada Division of Environmental Protection. She has served as lead counsel in numerous regulatory proceedings including general rate cases, integrated resource planning and on complex water, resource and environmental agency issues. Laura also assists clients through the permitting process for projects on public and forest system lands.

Agency Litigation & Judicial Review
Laura has served as lead counsel in numerous court cases involving agency decisions and rule-making managing large client groups and complex issues. She has frequently and successfully handled cases involving key industry issues, complex matters and high stakes litigation. Laura also has successful defended agency decisions authorizing resource projects on public lands.

Water Rights & Government Affairs
Laura also works closely with clients in the areas of municipal law and government affairs, water rights acquisitions and permitting, and related policy issues.

EXPERIENCE

- Environmental permitting

- Water rights and policy
- Land use and governmental affairs
- Agency litigation and judicial review

CLIENT RESULTS

Represented the American Mining and Exploration Association before the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia and the D.C. Court of Appeals in Earthworks et al. vs. U.S. Department of the Interior et al.. The case represented a significant victory for the mining industry and pre-discovery rights under the Mining Law.

Successfully defended the federal and state authorizations for Thacker Pass prevailing at the State Environmental Commission, the United States District Court, and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals on extensive and wide ranging challenges on the permitting authorizations.

Prevailed in defeating requested injunctive relief to stop exploration for critical minerals on Forest System lands in Arizona under a plan authorized with proper and efficient use of a categorical exclusion.

Before joining Holland & Hart, some of Laura's cases included:

- Successfully challenged Bureau of Land Management's Approved Resource Management Plan Amendment for Greater Sage Grouse in Nevada on behalf of multiple Nevada counties and several private entities. US District Court – District of Nevada found the BLM violated NEPA and remanded, requiring the BLM to prepare a Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement.
- Successfully handled several issues of first impression involving mineral resources in Nevada including a 2011 case ruling a state tax imposed on mining claims unconstitutional as well as cases involving complex land tenure issues.
- Successfully defended one of the largest qui tam actions brought in Nevada challenging the constitutionality of an initial public offering.
