

Margaret Master

Of Counsel

1800 Broadway, Suite 300, Boulder, CO 80302

P 303.473.2706

MKMaster@hollandhart.com

Margaret is an of counsel in the Real Estate Construction, Finance, and Bankruptcy practice group.

PRACTICES

Resorts and Hospitality
Real Estate
Affordable and Multifamily Housing
Leasing
Real Estate Finance

EDUCATION

Chicago-Kent College of Law, J.D., 2012
Editor-in-Chief, Chicago-Kent Law
Review, May 2011 - May 2012
Dean's Honor List

University of Michigan, B.A., 2007
University Honors, 2005, 2006
James B. Angell Scholar, 2007

BAR ADMISSIONS

Colorado
Illinois

Maggie focuses her practice on multifaceted real estate transactions. She works with a diverse range of clients, including commercial property owners and developers, lenders and REITS, providing advice on real estate development- related financing, commercial leasing and multifamily and affordable housing development. She has also represented lenders in securitized loan transactions, including drafting and negotiating complex loan agreements and other financing documents.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

"Introduction to Real Estate Law ," Colorado Bar Association Real Estate and Young Lawyers Division Cross-Over CLE, April 23, 2025

RECOGNITION

- Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America, Real Estate Law, 2025

PROFESSIONAL AND CIVIC AFFILIATIONS

- American Bar Association, Member
- Colorado Bar Association, Member
 - Real Estate Section Council, 2026 - present
- KIPP Colorado, Advisory Board Member, June 2016 - June 2018
- Teach for America, Corps Member, August 2007 - August 2008