Dirk Gaspar focuses his practice on all aspects of construction law, including contract negotiation and drafting, construction defect litigation, disputes, and liens.

Dirk brings experience serving as lead attorney on litigation and transactional matters involving industrial/infrastructure, commercial and residential disputes, insurance issues, and contract negotiation and drafting.

He has counseled some of the largest developers and general contractors in Southern California and Nevada, including clients in the sports and entertainment, mining, development, and construction industries. Utilizing his background in architecture, Dirk has represented clients on industrial, commercial, and residential projects.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Dirk worked for boutique construction law firms in Las Vegas and Southern California.
