BAR ADMISSIONS

Colorado

She handles a variety of complex commercial litigation cases, including ownership disputes and business divorces, software implementation disputes, and other breach-of-contract and tort claims. Hannah works closely with clients to reduce the stress of litigation and build a case strategy that aligns with their short and long-term goals, both for the litigation and beyond. She focuses on a variety of industries, including financial services, ski areas and outdoor recreation, and software and technology.

In addition to her summer clerkship with Holland & Hart, Hannah served as a law clerk for the Hon. Monica M. Márquez of the Colorado Supreme Court. During law school, she interned for Chief Judge Timothy M. Tymkovich on the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

CLIENT RESULTS

Defended business tort and trade secret claims brought by a competitor, obtaining dismissal of all claims and a full award of attorney fees.

Successfully litigated motions to vacate and motions to confirm arbitration awards.

Represented company against distributor, obtaining favorable rulings on summary judgment on all claims prior to trial.

Litigated complex breach-of-contract issues on behalf of manufacturer in fast-track arbitration resulting in favorable settlement.
