Hannah guides clients through the litigation process and uses her eye for detail to craft compelling motions and briefs.

Her experience includes working on matters involving the validity of arbitration awards, eminent domain, and LLC issues covering membership, operating agreements, and managers' authority to act. Hannah assists senior litigators with drafting motions for summary judgment, arbitration briefs, and trial preparation.

In addition to her summer clerkship with Holland & Hart, Hannah served as a law clerk for the Hon. Monica M. Márquez of the Colorado Supreme Court. During law school, she interned for Chief Judge Timothy M. Tymkovich on the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.
