Wes brings a business-first approach to assisting investors and companies on corporate matters including commercial contracts, financings, and other strategic transactions.

Wes represents emerging businesses in all stages of their life cycle on entity formation and conversion processes, corporate governance matters, commercial agreements, venture financings, and other strategic transactions. He works with both emerging and established brands in the food, beverage, and consumer product industry, strategic investors, and venture funds.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Wes practiced corporate law at DLA Piper in Austin, Texas.
