Michael supports attorneys and clients from preparing pleadings and other client documents to conducting records searches for depositions and hearings.

Michael brings more than a decade of experience for clients facing a wide range of litigation matters, including construction, liability, white collar, and professional liability. He assists attorneys in preparing discovery responses and communicates with insurance carriers, outside counsel, expert witnesses, and settlement parties.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Michael worked as a paralegal at a full-service law firm with a national footprint.
