Stephanie supports attorneys and clients, drawing on nearly three decades of transactional support experience working in law firm and corporate settings.

Stephanie skillfully prepares and files documents, manages complex projects, conducts due diligence, reviews contracts, and liaises with title companies. Her experience includes managing legal operations for a national nonprofit and serving in a dual role working as a senior paralegal and firm administrator.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Stephanie worked at an established Denver law firm supporting its real estate and corporate clients in complex litigation, transactional, and real estate matters.
