Aisha assists clients with a variety of corporate matters, with a focus on companies in the food, beverage, and consumer products industry.

Aisha advises companies on mergers and acquisitions, financings, and strategic transactions, primarily for venture capital funds and early-stage companies. She also has experience counseling clients on commercial real estate matters and a range of business and corporate transactions, as well as guiding them through the corporate lifecycle. She draws from this knowledge to provide companies with business-focused and solution-oriented advice.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Aisha was an associate at Berg Hill Greenleaf Ruscitti.
