Erik assists energy and resources clients on a wide range of litigation and regulatory compliance matters.

Erik represents clients in state and federal courts and before administrative agencies, on a variety of matters including defense of environmental enforcement actions and energy and natural resources development. He also guides clients on issues of workplace safety and emergency response, including proactive compliance and defense of enforcement actions and personal injury claims.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Erik worked as a litigator at a mid-size Washington law firm. Clients benefit from Erik's extensive experience serving as a judicial clerk for the United States District Court for the District of Wyoming, the District Court for the District of Minnesota, and the District Court for the Eastern District of California.
