Chase helps private and public clients navigate complex corporate matters, with a focus on securities law and mergers and acquisitions.

Chase leverages his broad legal background to assist clients in business formation and planning, private securities offerings, all aspects of mergers and acquisitions, stock and asset acquisitions, and contract drafting and negotiation, as well as matters involving securities law compliance. He also supports public companies in regular SEC reporting requirements, corporate governance issues, and general corporate matters.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Chase practiced at a full-service law firm in Salt Lake City and served as a law clerk to Judge Jill N. Parrish of the US District Court for the District of Utah.
