

John Nash

Associate

222 South Main Street, Suite 2200, Salt Lake City, UT 84101

P 801.799.5740

jcnash@hollandhart.com

John provides clients with practical solutions involving tax-exempt organization, formation, and operation.

PRACTICES

Private Client
Trust, Estate, Business Succession
Planning, and Administration
Tax
Tax Controversy and Litigation
Tax-Exempt and Nonprofit Organizations
Private Trust Companies

EDUCATION

University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law, J.D., 2016
magna cum laude
William H. Leary Scholar

Brigham Young University, B.A., 2012

BAR ADMISSIONS

Utah

COURT ADMISSIONS

U.S. Tax Court

He represents nonprofit and tax-exempt organizations including charities, private foundations, and trade associations, assisting them with the qualification and maintenance of exempt status and in legal audits when necessary. Additionally, John's practice includes federal tax controversy and litigation, charitable planning for individuals and organizations, and estate planning.

As a former attorney with the IRS Office of Chief Counsel, he advised, trained, and represented the IRS on all levels of tax audits, litigation, and tax collection, and served as a member and leader of several national and regional cadres focused on tax collection and cannabis matters.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, John worked as an associate for Kirton McConkie. During law school, he served as a judicial intern for the Utah State Tax Commission.

PROFESSIONAL AND CIVIC AFFILIATIONS

- Utah State Bar, Cannabis Law; International Law; Non-Profit/Charitable Law; Probate/Estate Planning; Tax; Member