Maria is an experienced paralegal who provides attorneys and clients support throughout every level of litigation.

Maria has nearly 30 years of experience working both in-house and in private practice, which provides her a keen perspective on multiple facets of the litigation process. Maria provides support at all stages of litigation from drafting discovery requests and responses, document review and production management, witness interview and deposition summaries to legal research and pre-trial preparation and trial support, including trial attendance and presentation of trial exhibits.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Maria worked as a senior paralegal for an Idaho-based law firm. Her previous experience includes six years serving as a senior paralegal in the Corporate Law Department Investigations Group for Northrup Grumman Corporation, a multinational aerospace and defense contractor, and nearly thirteen years at a full-service law firm in Los Angeles, California.
