

Bailey Nickoloff

Associate

401 North 31st Street, Suite 1500, Billings, MT 59101

bmnickoloff@hollandhart.com

Bailey assists clients with a range of environmental compliance and permitting matters in Montana.

Bailey represents energy and natural resource companies in environmental litigation in state and federal courts and before the Montana Board of Environmental Review. They support clients in a variety of environmental litigation matters including defense of energy and natural resources development, toxic tort suits, CERCLA cost recovery actions, commercial disputes, and land use disputes.

During law school, Bailey worked for the Department of the Interior (DOI) Office of the Field Solicitor working for Bureau of Reclamation, Bureau of Indian Affairs, and National Park Service, where they researched matters related to the ESA, resource management and Federal Indian law. They also interned for the Native American Rights Fund.

PRACTICES

Environmental Environmental Litigation
Federal Lands Permitting
Business Litigation
Wildlife and Protected Species
Environmental Health and Safety

INDUSTRIES

Energy and Resources
Mining
Oil and Gas

EDUCATION

American University, Washington College of Law, J.D., 2022
Native American Law Students Association, Treasurer
Civil Advocacy Clinic, Student Attorney
Environmental Law Society, Member
Lambda Law Society, Member
Sustainable Development Law & Policy Brief, Editor-in-Chief

University of Jamestown, B.A., 2016
magna cum laude

BAR ADMISSIONS

Montana
District of Columbia

EXPERIENCE

Bailey assists clients with:

- American Indian law
- Natural resources litigation
- NEPA compliance and litigation
- Enforcement actions
- Land use disputes
- Commercial litigation

PROFESSIONAL AND CIVIC AFFILIATIONS

- Alzheimer's Association, Fundraiser, 2017-2019