A dedicated and detail-oriented paralegal, Helen assists clients on family law, estate planning, and trust matters.

Helen supports attorneys and clients through the course of resolving and litigating dissolution of marriage and legal separation matters, premarital and marital agreements, and estate and tax matters. She skillfully crafts separation agreements, parenting plans, and corporate documents, and coordinates mandatory financial disclosures and discovery. Helen focuses on litigation support, case management, legal document preparation, and project management to help support clients' personal and financial goals.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Helen worked as a paralegal and practice assistant at Sherman & Howard.
