Colin is a dedicated lawyer who supports his clients through all stages of litigation.

Colin is a valuable litigation team member who applies strong investigation and research skills in his approach to business litigation. He particularly enjoys dealing with disputes requiring statutory analysis and interpretation. Colin's experience covers various general litigation matters, including contract disputes, real estate, and insurance compliance.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Colin participated in the firm's summer clerk program, where he conducted legal research and assisted litigation attorneys in trial and case preparation.
