When oil and gas companies confront complex royalty or severance-tax audits, demands, enforcement actions, or transactional questions, they turn to Rosario.

Rosario advises operators and lessees on critical royalty and severance tax reporting, payment, and compliance issues, ranging from small, specialized operators to multi-national companies. She regularly represents payors operating on federal and tribal lands, and those operating under federal leases in the Pacific and Gulf of Mexico.

Clients rely on Rosario for her insights into regulatory rulemaking and her proactive guidance on compliance with new rules and policies. Over the course of her career, Rosario's work has included saving producers an estimated $25 billion in costs.

Rosario guides clients through self-audits and in responding to governmental audits, such as data mining requests, compliance reviews, enforcement inquiries, and other investigations conducted by the Office of Natural Resources Revenue (ONRR), the Department of Justice, the Office of Inspector General, or State Departments of Audit.

She also assists clients identify and pursue refunds and challenge adverse assessments, such as orders to pay, orders to perform restructured accounting, civil penalty notices, denials of cost allocation and valuation proposals, and tribal delinquency notices.

Rosario brings a rare combination of computational acumen and creative thinking necessary to articulate comprehensive and novel legal arguments persuasive to regulators, tribes, and courts. Rosario regularly handles appeals before the ONRR Director, the Interior Board of Land Appeals, and federal district and appellate courts. She has also negotiated and resolved complex disputes with tribal authorities, including the Navajo Nation and Kiowa Tribe.

Clients appreciate Rosario's painstaking attention to detail as well as her ability to recognize opportunities for deductions and other cost valuation methodologies that may reduce financial obligations.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Rosario was a partner at Ryan Law Firm, where she led the firm's oil and gas royalty practice. She also practiced as an associate at Baker & Hostetler and Norton Rose Fulbright.

CLIENT RESULTS

Audits & Investigations

- Successfully resolved numerous data mining reviews, compliance reviews, and audits conducted by the Office of Natural Resources Revenue (ONRR), the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department (NMTRD), and the Wyoming Department of Audit (WYDOA) relating to federal and Indian oil and gas royalty sales, volumes, valuation, and allowances.
- Obtained rare final audit report from WYDOA identifying no issues after completing audit of client's federal gas royalties and unbundling of arm's-length costs.
- Successfully resolved and settled various False Claims Act investigations conducted by the Department of Justice (e.g., alleging underpaid federal gas royalties and overclaimed allowances) and the Office of Inspector General (e.g., concerning unreported sales and transportation of oil condensate).
- Successfully resolved audit of national energy producer's private royalty payments and deductions on production from the Denver Basin.

Administrative Appeals

- Obtained rare Treasury waiver and referral of federal royalty debt back to the ONRR, resulting in savings of over $635,000.
- Obtained several Interior Board of Land Appeals (IBLA) opinions finding sufficient evidence suggesting ONRR acted in bad faith during its decision-making process and record compilation to deny appellants' royalty refund claims. IBLA-2020-398, IBLA-2021-176, IBLA-2022-69 (2023).
- Obtained rare ONRR withdrawal of Order to Report and Pay alleging improper transportation and processing allowances.
- Successfully resolved and settled appeal of Order to Report and Pay alleging improper deductions of non-arm's-length and arm's-length transportation costs.
- Successfully settled appeal of Order to Perform Restructured Accounting and Pay and obtained release of all open reviews, audits, claims, and other federal and Indian royalty obligations for dissolving operator.

Federal Court Appeals

- Successfully appealed and vacated ONRR Director Decision denying offshore transportation allowances. Obtained district court decision vacating modified royalty demands as arbitrary and capricious and remanding case to further address ONRR's non-compliance with Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards.
- In a case of first impression, successfully appealed and vacated ONRR Director Decision denying transportation allowances. Obtained district court decision vacating unlawful expansion and modification of claims asserted in Order to Report and Pay. Devon

Energy Prod. Co., L.P. v. Gould, 421 F.Supp.3d 1213 (D.Wyo. 2019).

- Successfully appealed and set aside ONRR Director Decision valuing lessee's unprocessed gas using higher residue gas pricing. Obtained district court decision holding valuation of unprocessed gas sold at wellhead under percentage-of-proceed contracts as processed gas using residue gas pricing was arbitrary, capricious, plainly erroneous, and inconsistent with regulation. Continental Resources, Inc. v. Gould, 410 F.Supp.3d 30 (D.D.C. 2019).
- In a case of first impression, successfully appealed district court decision denying federal royalty suit as time barred. Obtained reversal, determining proper application of the 180-day and 33-month periods for judicial review under 30 U.S.C. § 1724. Continental Resources, Inc. v. Jewell, 846 F.3d 1232 (D.C. Cir. 2017).

Policy & Legislation

- Drafted H.R. 10005, "Expedited Appeals Review Act" (Rep. Hageman, 2024), to establish a process to expedite the review of appeals of certain decisions by the Department of the Interior.
- In appeal of ONRR action, obtained IBLA opinion prompting the Board to codify precedent that "when an appeal of a decision is fined, the bureau or office that issued the decision loses jurisdiction to modify, rescind, or supersede it." 90 Fed. Reg. 2332, 2364 (Jan. 10, 2025) (citing Century Offshore Management Corp. (On Reconsideration), 196 IBLA 250, 253 (2021)).

Class Actions

- Successfully prevented discovery of non-party natural gas processor's confidential information in various class action suits.

Pro Bono

- In 2013, obtained the Nation's first ruling holding transgender students must be allowed to use bathrooms that match their gender identities. Successfully appealed decision of Colorado school district to Colorado Civil Rights Division under Colorado's Anti-Discrimination Act, working with the Transgender Legal Defense & Education Fund.
