

Caitlin Dortch

Associate

555 17th Street, Suite 3200, Denver, CO 80202

P 303.293.5973

cedortch@hollandhart.com

Caitlin utilizes a comprehensive approach to guide clients through complex corporate transactions, focusing her practice on mergers and acquisitions and private equity matters.

Caitlin's experience spans both buy-side and sell-side transactions across various industries, including multiple multi-billion-dollar deals. She provides strategic perspective on deal dynamics and market considerations, representing clients throughout all stages of M&A transactions. Caitlin effectively manages the entire process from initial due diligence review through closing. She skillfully drafts, negotiates, and reviews transaction agreements while coordinating closely with clients to ensure seamless execution of their strategic objectives.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Caitlin was an associate attorney at Gibson Dunn, and previously practiced at Debevoise & Plimpton in New York.

PRACTICES

Corporate
Mergers and Acquisitions

EDUCATION

New York University School of Law, J.D., 2019

Journal of Law and Business, Staff Editor and Academic Events Coordinator
High School Law Institute, Co-Chair and Mock Trial Teacher

New York University, M.A., 2016

University of California, Los Angeles,
B.A., 2012

magna cum laude
With Honors

BAR ADMISSIONS

Colorado
New York

EXPERIENCE

Mergers & Acquisitions

- Strategic acquisitions and dispositions
- Private equity transactions
- Restructurings and reorganizations
- Roll-up transactions
- Auction processes
- Cross-border M&A

Corporate Governance and Transactions

- Counseling to management and boards of directors
- Complex partnership and joint venture structuring
- Business succession planning
- Ownership interest transfer restrictions
- Commercial contracts
- Governance policies and procedures
- Formation of new entities (corporations, limited liability companies, nonprofit corporations, etc.)
- Operating agreements