EDUCATION

University of Colorado at Denver, B.A.
International Affairs
summa cum laude
With Distinction

With 20 years of experience in intellectual property operations across both law firm and in-house corporate environments, Tammy efficiently coordinates with inventors and attorneys to help convert complex technologies into protected intellectual property assets. Her expertise spans both domestic and international patent and trademark portfolios, including PCT applications, foreign prosecution oversight and facilitation, and global patent annuity management.

Drawing from her comprehensive paralegal background in patent prosecution, trademark clearance, and life sciences opinion work, Tammy provides sophisticated support across all phases of intellectual property protection. Her adaptable and proactive approach has proven instrumental in maintaining accurate prosecution records and identifying potential issues.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Tammy worked as a Senior IP Paralegal for a leading American satellite television, IPTV and wireless phone services provider.
