Jossie leverages her diverse experience to best support high net worth clients in complex matters involving trust and estate planning and administration.

Jossie assists clients with fiduciary litigation, estate administration, and estate planning and participates in depositions, settlement conferences, and mediations. She brings valuable insights to both advocacy and judicial decision-making processes, developing effective strategies for resolving disputes and structuring transactions to help meet clients' objectives. Jossie's hands-on experience provides her with a well-rounded understanding of the legal landscape that benefits clients facing multifaceted legal challenges.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Jossie served as a law clerk for Krieg DeVault. Previously, she also served as an extern to Judge Daniel B. Malone of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Probate Division.
