Jack's practice focuses on energy, environmental, and utility regulatory matters.

Jack advises clients on a range of legal and regulatory issues, including matters before state and federal agencies, and assists with regulatory compliance, legal research, and dispute resolution matters. His experience includes working with energy and utility clients on complex regulatory and operational issues. Jack supports clients by analyzing regulatory developments, preparing filings and other legal documents, conducting research, and helping clients navigate evolving legal and compliance requirements.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Jack practiced energy and utility law at Ice Miller LLP in Indiana, where he represented a variety of utilities and other entities in Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission proceedings.

EXPERIENCE
