

Arthur Hundhausen

Partner
303.295.8548
Denver
ahundhausen@hollandhart.com

California Sales and Use Tax: Updated Guidance for Veterinarians

Insight — 05/26/2022

California recently published updated guidance for veterinarians on sales and use tax. The guidance uses plain-language examples to illustrate when sales tax does and does not apply to a veterinarian's provision of medicines, drugs, other products, and x-rays. The guidance is available here.

In our experience, veterinary hospitals and other pet care businesses face unique challenges in complying with sales and use taxes. Holland & Hart's team of industry-focused, state and local tax attorneys provide practical guidance and solutions to address with these issues in the context of disputes with taxing authorities, ongoing business operations, or the purchase or sale of a business.

This publication is designed to provide general information on pertinent legal topics. The statements made are provided for educational purposes only. They do not constitute legal or financial advice nor do they necessarily reflect the views of Holland & Hart LLP or any of its attorneys other than the author(s). This publication is not intended to create an attorney-client relationship between you and Holland & Hart LLP. Substantive changes in the law subsequent to the date of this publication might affect the analysis or commentary. Similarly, the analysis may differ depending on the jurisdiction or circumstances. If you have specific questions as to the application of the law to your activities, you should seek the advice of your legal counsel.